

Digital World

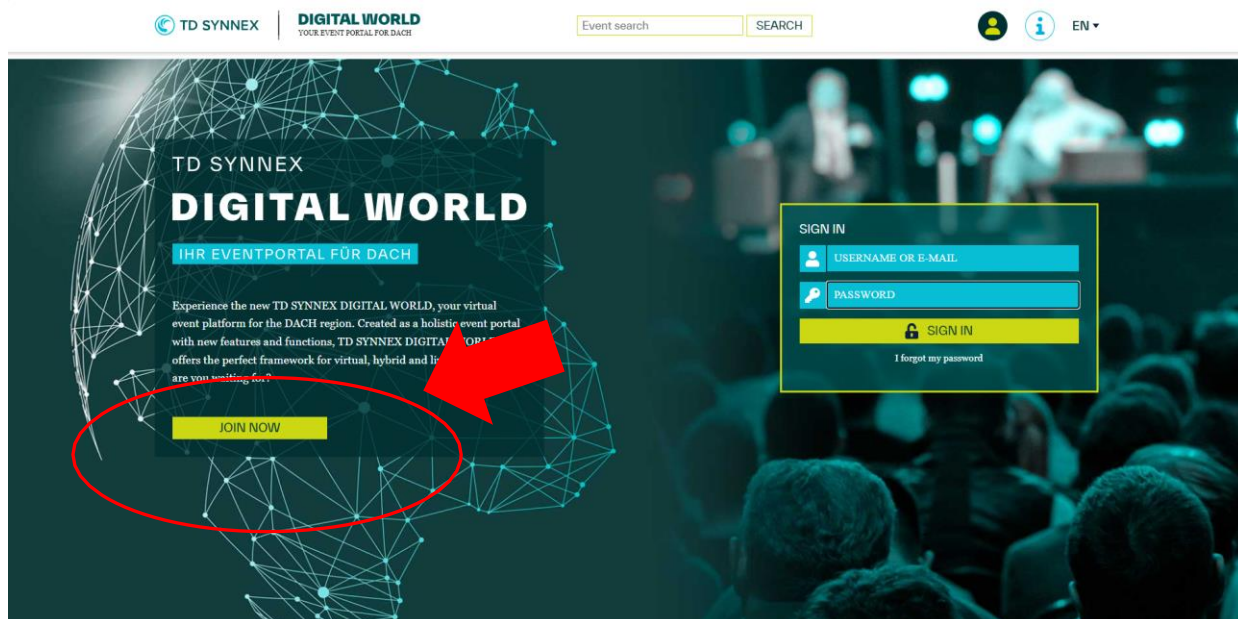

Registration and Login Process

By registering once in the Digital World, you will be able to sign up for all future events with just a few clicks without having to re-enter your data.

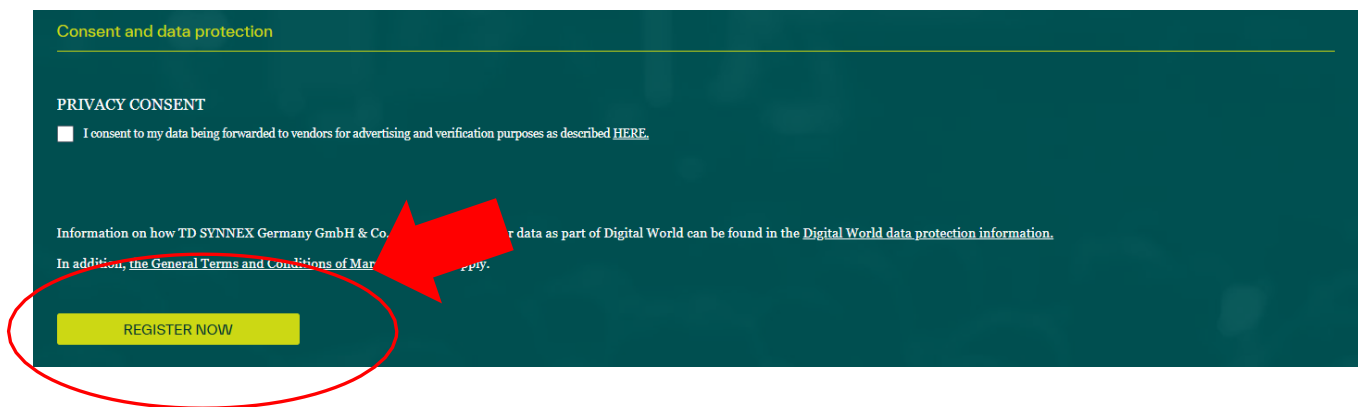

Please note: The Registration does not automatically sign you up for an event, even if you were directed to the registration page via an event link.

Registration on the Digital World

- ▶ Go to <https://events-dach.tdsynnex.com>
- ▶ Click on „Join Now“

- ▶ Please fill out the registration form
- ▶ After entering your data, click on "Register Now".
- ▶ Your registration is only successful once you have confirmed the registration email. Please also check your SPAM folder!

The image shows a registration form titled "Consent and data protection" on a dark teal background. The form includes a "PRIVACY CONSENT" section with a checkbox and text: "I consent to my data being forwarded to vendors for advertising and verification purposes as described HERE." Below this, there is a line of text: "Information on how TD SYNnex Germany GmbH & Co. processes your data as part of Digital World can be found in the Digital World data protection information." The next line reads: "In addition, the General Terms and Conditions of Marketing apply." A red arrow points to the "General Terms and Conditions of Marketing" link. At the bottom of the form is a yellow button labeled "REGISTER NOW", which is circled in red.
